

Throw a Brick

Hardcore Superstar

Tonight we're out of order
We stick to the plan
Chaos and disorder
Playing them like a violin
I feel the fever rising
What a joy to see your hands
If you got something to say to me
So c'mon, here I stand

Throw a brick, let the good times roll
I start to shiver when it's outta control
Throw a brick, honey save my soul
Sweet sounding sirens of the highway patrol

We're as gentle as a freight train
And we're going off the rails
We are moving up the food chain
While the wellborn chew their nails
Addicted to the mayhem
We're the disaffected crew
Tonight we go out playin'
And we're coming after you

Throw a brick, let the good times roll
I start to shiver when it's outta control
Throw a brick, honey save my soul
Sweet sounding sirens of the highway patrol

It feels good to me, feels good to me
It feels good to me

Throw a brick, let the good times roll
I start to shiver when it's outta control
Throw a brick, honey save my soul
Sweet sounding sirens of the highway patrol

It feels good to me
It feels good to me
