

The Curse

Hardline

While fighting you back I learned how to learn
But now I am trapped here all alone
I wait for a sign from anyone speaking
If you let me listen

The price you show
It's never enough
When it comes to the heart

The cost of love can't tell you the truth
Of the highs you feel and the lows you bear
This curse called love it's here and it's there
While bent out of place while heaven's frail

The blues I have inside of me
Telling me where my trust should be
Got lost in this swamp I'm begging for air
Walk in the future of nowhere

The prices you show
It's never enough
When it comes to the heart

The cost of love can't tell you the truth
Of the highs you feel and the lows you bear
This curse called love it's here and it's there
While bent out of place while heaven's frail

The curse of love
Don't turn your back on it
It will stick right in you
Will you feed it, feed it more

The cost of love can't tell you the truth
Of the highs you feel and the lows you bear
This curse called love it's here and it's there
While bent out of place while heaven's frail

The curse called love

The cost of love can't tell you the truth
Of the highs you feel and the lows you bear
This curse called love it's here and it's there
While bent out of place while heaven's frail

The curse called love
Now she's flying
