

Waiting for Your Fall

Hardline

If they say you're winning
If they're cheering everything you do
Keep an eye on your back
They might find a way into your life
And wish goodbye

Waiting just to leave you
Taking all they gave you
Are they worth wasting your time

Give it all in life and don't look back
There is strength inside the wrong
You can run as fast as eyes can see
But they'll always be
Waiting for your fall

Waiting for your fall

What is pulling you down
Can you feel the light that slowly fades
A never-ending question
Can you find your hell within your place
The give and takes

A little late to hate you
Another cure to break through
Are they worth all of your time

Give it all in life and don't look back
There is strength inside the wrong
You can run as fast as eyes can see
But they'll always be
Waiting for your fall

Waiting for your fall
Waiting
Waiting for your fall

Give it all in life and don't look back
There is strength inside the wrong
You can run as fast as eyes can see
But they'll always be
Waiting for your fall

Don't look back
Don't you turn your back on me no more
No no more
Waiting
Waiting for your

Waiting for your fall
