

Nothing Can Hold Us Down

Hardwell

Ocean's red is running through my veins
From where we are right now
So firm we'll break through every wave
We'll never turn around

I will guide you
I will shelter you
I will lift you up
Nothing can hold us down
Nothing can hold us down
Nothing can hold us down
I will guide you
I will shelter you
I will lift you up

Nothing can hold us down

Ocean's red is running through my veins
From where we are right now
So firm we'll break through every wave
We'll never turn around

I will guide you
I will shelter you
I will lift you up
Nothing can hold us down
Nothing can hold us down
Nothing can hold us down
I will guide you
I will shelter you
I will lift you up

Nothing can hold us down
