

Yeah

Usually I'm good for words
This time round it wouldn't work
That's why I tried look good at first
Play my strengths that shouldn't hurt
You're that girl they tweet about
That most man don't wanna be without
And I'm that guy they speak about
And most girls say leave em out
We both wear scars you cover up well
I don't know if you tell
They been tryna get at you
I wanna get to you
Maybe I'm trippin I
I know you dealt with so & so's
Hollywood niggas that no one knows
Weirdos stalkers all of those [?] all of those
On a genuine see I let you win
I don't let anyone in these days cah
No one cares how you been these days
That's not sayin you owe me nuttin cah I care about you
And I think these days
I know you think I think too much
I put my phone away when I'm with you
I bet you don't clock that it rings too much
Cos everyone's got a say these days but more time I don't even care
I know that you get this bare
Maybe that makes it less sincere
If I ever go back to the ACs you're the uncle I f with bare
I'll let you put your hand in my food sh
I don't think that it gets that clear but yeah

Can you save yourself for me?
Cos I been through hell for you
And these days I never thought I'd find someone like you

Normally I play it calm
This time round let's say I can't
This time man try play my part
If I play flop let's stay apart
I got girls I used to shout I don't shout they shout me
They ring me on a random
Sayin let's go cinema or suttem but truth is that don't wow me
You tell me that you're love hate
I just think that I buss case
J Cole when I'm up late
Thinkin how the hell do I touch base
Really like, this ain't even what I'm really like [?] told me that I'm movin mad
Might think it's weird that I'm bein nice
I told you though I'm dangerous init
You screw your face and you twiss it
I laugh a lot and you give it
I don't find it jarrin I dig it
This one's kinda bad for my image
But mans don't try to act with my lyrics

I'll stand by it if I said it
I'll stand by it if I meant it
Everyone's got a say these days but more time I don't even care
I know that you get this bare
Maybe that makes it less sincere
If I ever go back to the ACs you're the uncle I f with bare
I'll let you put your hand in my M&Ms
Shit, I don't think that it get's that clear but yeah

Can you save yourself for me?
Cos I been through hell for you
And these days I never thought I'd find someone like you

Can you save yourself for me?
Cos I been through hell for you
And these days I never thought I'd find someone like you
