

Goodbye

Hardy

Baby, time's a Camaro, it ain't movin' no slower
I know it's rainin' like the devil, and we're whiskey hungover
It's been a hell of a work week, and there's ten thousand reasons To stay wrapped in these warm sheets, but, baby girl, I've been thinkin'

Let's go to Paris, drink a beer on the roof
Hook up on some ferris wheel, and get matchin' tattoos
Crash an old money wedding, parachute from the sky
I wanna do it all 'cause, dammit, after all, unless we both go
at the same time
One day, we'll say goodbye

Yeah, it already haunts me that I didn't hold your hand
On that short walk to coffee, Solana beach in the sand So, baby, put on your best dress, the one that knocks me to the ground
I don't wanna look back just wishin' that we did but we didn't,
I'll buy that ticket right now

Let's go to Paris, drink a beer on the roof
Hook up on some ferris wheel, and get matchin' tattoos
Crash an old money wedding, parachute from the sky
I wanna do it all 'cause, dammit, after all, unless we both go
at the same time
One day, oh baby, we'll say goodbye

No matter how hard we try
One of us is gonna have to pick up flowers, sit alone by a stone and cry
And I'll be damned if regret's what I think when I think of us
I need a heart full of memories, not it breakin' 'cause we didn'
't go to Paris

So let's go to Paris, drink a beer on the roof
Hook up on some ferris wheel, and get matchin' tattoos
Crash an old money wedding, parachute from the sky
I wanna do it all 'cause, dammit, after all, unless we both go
at the same time
One day, we'll say goodbye
One day, we'll say goodbye
