

If The Devil Danced (In Empty Pockets)

Hardy

Diablo Motors had a hell of a sale, downtown yesterday
Word got around, no money down, take years and years to pay
When I got there, the lot was bare, but the salesman said, "Hold on

For a little cash, I got a two-tone Nash out behind the barn"

If the Devil danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine
With a nine-foot grand, a ten-piece band, and a twelve-girl chorus line

Well, I'd raise some loot in a three-piece suit, and give 'em one dance for a dime

If the Devil danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine

Well, he said, "Friend, it ain't the end, let's see what I can do

If you own a home, I've got a loan tailor-made for you"

Then, above the racket, a voice in my jacket said, "Hey, I'll tote the note"

The devil made me do it, he talked me into it, that was all she wrote

If the Devil danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine
With a nine-foot grand, a ten-piece band, and a twelve-girl chorus line

I'd raise some loot in a three-piece suit, give 'em one dance for a dime

If the Devil danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine

Ah-they say debt is a bottomless pit where the devil likes to play

Well, I'd sell my soul to get out of this hole, but there'd be hell to pay

Oh yeah!

Ah, nah!

If the Devil danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine
With a nine-foot grand, a ten-piece band, and a twelve-girl chorus line

Yeah, I'd raise some loot in a three-piece suit, give 'em one dance for a dime

If the Devil danced in empty pockets, he'd have a ball in mine
