

Is It Cold In Here

Hardy

One, two

There's somethin' wrong
Somethin' wrong
Lord, I'm feelin' a chill
Feelin' a chill
That runs through my heart
Like a torch cuts through steel

You haven't said a word
Are you feelin' it, too?
Is it cold in here
Or is it just you?

Did I leave the door wide open
And let the chill just kill that old desire?
Should I put my arms around you
Or put another log on the fire?
Is it my imagination
Or did the temperature just drop a notch or two?
Is it cold in here
Or is it just you?

Oh, there's no warmth at all
When I try to hold you near
You stare into space
As if I wasn't here

Did our love just die?
Did our love just die
Or is it just about to?
To
Is it cold in here
Or is it just you?

Did I leave the door wide open
And let the chill just kill that old desire?
Should I put my arms around you
Or throw another log on the fire?
Is it my imagination
Or did the temperature just drop a notch or two?
Is it cold in here
Or is it just you?
Ooh, is it cold in here
Or is it just you?
