

Luckiest Man Alive

Hardy

My truck cranked up this morning
Saw a couple bucks on my way to town
A little cloudy but the sky ain't pourin'
Dogs ain't undefeated but they're Peach Bowl bound

Diesel ain't cheap, a biscuit ain't free
But there's money in my bank account
And I'm walking into work with coffee on my shirt
But I ain't got nothin' to complain about, 'cause

I'm the luckiest man alive
Living out "Country Boy Can Survive"
Floating with the breeze like a dandelion
I'm the luckiest man alive
I got it pretty good for a good old boy
Baby looking all hot damn, good Lord
Gonna thank Him when I fold my hands tonight
I'm the luckiest man alive

I didn't win the Power Ball lotto
But I found a folded twenty in my Monday jeans
Might have hit a couple backroad potholes
But I didn't pop a tire and caught all three greens

Got a back strap thawing
And a cold one calling my name when the clock hits 5
Ain't found a four leaf clover, but I ain't hungover
After nine or ten beers last night, yeah, I

I'm the luckiest man alive
Living out "Country Boy Can Survive"
Floating with the breeze like a dandelion
I'm the luckiest man alive
I got it pretty good for a good old boy
Baby looking all hot damn, good Lord
Gonna thank Him when I fold my hands tonight
I'm the luckiest man alive
That's right

Acres in the country
Shine in a jug
Hole with some honey and a boat with a plug
Angel that loves me like you wouldn't believe
What did I do to deserve to be

The luckiest man alive?
Living out "Country Boy Can Survive"
Floating with the breeze like a dandelion
I'm the luckiest man alive
Oh yeah, I got it
Pretty good for a good old boy
Baby looking all hot damn, good Lord
Gonna thank Him when I fold my hands tonight
I'm the luckiest man alive

I'm gonna thank Him when I fold my hands tonight
I'm the luckiest man alive
