

Something a Lil' Stronger

Hardy

I'm just a good time junky
Always leavin' the things that love me
Wish I could make it last just a lil' bit longer
But I keep lookin' for something a lil' stronger

It's never too cool, it's never too fast
It's never enough fifth that's in my glass
It's never too loud, it's never too late
Always a new town that needs some new paint, yeah

There's always a better buzz to be found
There's always some greener grass to burn down
Always a night that I might forget
And there's always advice I ain't tried yet

Why, tell me why do I try
And I try to stay high all the time
When I know I'm gonna come back down
One of these days I'll figure it out
But right now I'm just a good time junky
Always leavin' the things that love me
Wish I could make it last just a lil' bit longer
But I keep lookin' for something a lil' stronger
Hey Langston tell 'em 'bout it one time

With a pair of blue eyes start comin' around
I fall in love then I fall right out
They see all the right things, do all the right stuff
Guess a good girl's never been good enough

Why, tell me why do I try
And I try to stay high all the time
When I know I'm gonna come back down
One of these days I'll figure it out
But right now I'm just a good time junky
Always leavin' the things that love me
Wish I could make it last just a lil' bit longer
But I keep lookin' for something a lil' stronger, yeah
Yeah

Why, tell me why do I try
And I try to stay high all the time
When I know I'm gonna come back down
One of these days I'll figure it out
One of these days I'll figure it out
But right now I'm just a good time junky
Always leavin' the things that love me
Wish I could make it last just a lil' bit longer
But I keep lookin' for something a lil' stronger
I said I keep lookin' for something a lil' stronger
Oh yeah, somethin' lil' stronger, yeah
I keep, I keep, I keep lookin', oh boy
