

Better The Devil You Know

Harem Scarem

When our world crashed down
But I didn't break it
With every truth in doubt
And forsaken
There's a ghost of what we were
That I'm chasing
Oh but sometimes, yet sometimes
You can't hold on or let go

Better the devil you know
Than the angel you seek
When you're losing all hope
Ya you gotta believe, believe, believe
You've been looking all over
Still hanging onto the dream
Better the devil you know
Ya you gotta believe, believe, believe
Believe in you and me

Can't get outta of my own head
That's where I'm living
Cos all I see is your taking
But no giving
Ya sometimes things come to light
That were better hidden
Oh but sometimes, yet sometimes
You can't hold on or let go

Better the devil you know
Than the angel you seek
When you're losing all hope
Ya you gotta believe, believe, believe
You've been looking all over
Still hanging onto the dream
Better the devil you know
Ya you gotta believe, believe, believe
Believe in you and me

You can't hold on or let go

Better the devil you know
Than the angel you seek
When you're losing all hope
Ya you gotta believe, believe, believe
You've been looking all over
Still hanging onto the dream
Better the devil you know
Ya you gotta believe, believe, believe
Believe in you and me

Believe in you and me
