Beyond Repair

Harem Scarem

I was just a pawn again
There for your amusement

Pretending you love me
Pretending you need me

But your silence
Is saying everything
You're made of stone
And sinking beyond repair

Save it don't try to defend your ways
There's no argument

Pretending you love me
Pretending you need me

But your silence
Is saying everything
You're made of stone
And sinking beyond repair

But your silence
Is saying everything
You're made of stone
And sinking beyond repair

But your silence
Is saying everything
You're made of stone
And sinking beyond repair

But your silence
Is saying everything
You're made of stone
And sinking beyond repair
