

Change the World

Harem Scarem

We all want to find
Peace and harmony
We're fighting ourselves and time
Get on with your life
Just love and let it be
We all need hope by our side

Killing time was killing me
We're crossing lines
We're breaking on through

You and I are gonna change the world
You and I are gonna change the world

We all can lose sight
Of who we're trying to be
It's hard to hold your head up high
Here comes a new day
It's there for you to seize
Blocking all fear from your mind

Killing time was killing me
We're crossing lines
We're breaking on through

You and I are gonna change the world
You and I are gonna change the world

You and I are gonna change the world
You and I are gonna change the world

You and I are gonna change the world
You and I are gonna change the world

You and I are gonna change the world
You and I are gonna change the world
What are we waiting for?
