

Early Warning Signs

Harem Scarem

Hold on tight
'Cos we've entered flight into
The mouth of hell
No surprise
The entire human race
Is here as well
In denial of everything
And every moment we're alive
Dignity clings to life support
But I just think it took a dive
Blood rains from the skies
Like thunder it's a surgical strike
To our hearts
Don't you close your eyes
You'll miss all the...
Early warning signs
That read the world's going under
Blind leading the blind
Devastation like no other
It's an endless sea of power and greed
Surrounded by hypocrisy
Crossing chalk outlines
Missing early warning signs
Can't disguise
We're on the road we paved to ride it
Straight into hell
Culture dies
Starving to death
Down at the bottom of a wishing well
Revolution cries
To all of humankind eventually
Forced to betray
Can't empathize
Put down the loaded gun
Is not in our flawed DNA
Blood rains from the skies
Like thunder it's a surgical strike
To our hearts
Don't you close your eyes
You'll miss all the...
Early warning signs
That read the world's going under
Blind leading the blind
Devastation like no other
It's an endless sea of power and greed
