

In The End

Harem Scarem

Nice to see ya please don't mind me
I think I'm sneakin' up behind me
To tell myself I'm better off this way
You think we could be good together
Maybe you should stay
But wait I've changed my mind and don't Know what to say

I'm just another young man holding out for more
I hear monogamy's a bore
But don't believe a word I say
I'm ready for this

Love makes you stupid
Crawling on your hands and knees yea
Love gets us all in the end
Nice to see ya how'd you find me
I'm in the book yea don't remind me
I meant to change my number yesterday
Wait a minute where ya going
I guess there's just no way of knowing
I always let the good ones get away

I'm just another young man holding out for more
I think philosophy's a bore
But don't remember what it is
I'm thnking that for

Love makes you stupid
Crawling on your hands and knees yea
Love gets us all in the end
When love makes you stupid
You're doing things you can't believe yea
Love gets us all in the end
