

Reliving History

Harem Scarem

We tend to fear the unknown
So we'll leave it alone
And we'll walk the same road uninspired
And as the distance grows
Every kingdom will fall
Every choice has somehow been compromised

Oh and the illusion of free will is gone
Will we ever be free

Free from forever reliving history
Our fate disguised as liberty
The good the bad the in between
We'll be forever, forever reliving history

As the universe conspires
Good intentions will die in the void
And never be revived

Oh and the illusion of free will is gone
Will we ever be free

Free from forever reliving history
Our fate disguised as liberty
The good the bad the in between
We'll be forever, forever
Free from forever reliving history
Our fate disguised as liberty
The good the bad the in between
We'll be forever, forever reliving history

Free from forever reliving history
Our fate disguised as liberty
The good the bad the in between
We'll be forever, forever
Free from forever reliving history
Our fate disguised as liberty
The good the bad the in between
We'll be forever, forever reliving history
