

Searching for Meaning

Harem Scarem

We're all holding out for something
A guiding ray of light
But life don't make no promise to make it right
But if something can come from nothing
That'll get me through the night
It's all a road just surrender to the ride

All that we've got
Is a million miles to go

Oh all day all night
We're spending our time
Searching for meaning
Searching for meaning
Oh all day all night
We're spending our time
Searching for meaning
And something to believe in

Nobody owes you nothing
You'll be fighting till the end
You're born into a battle you'll never win

All that we've got
Is a million miles to go

Oh all day all night
We're spending our time
Searching for meaning
Searching for meaning
Oh all day all night
We're spending our time
Searching for meaning
And something to believe in

Oh all day all night
We're spending our time
Searching for meaning
Searching for meaning
Oh all day all night
We're spending our time
Searching for meaning
And something to believe in

Oh all day all night
We're spending our time
Searching for meaning
Searching for meaning
Oh all day all night
We're spending our time
Searching for meaning
