

Staying Away

Harem Scarem

Well I've been abused I'm alone
I've seen hell like you've never known
You know I'm living in fear
Of falling into love

Your thinking days it's been years
That's how long I've been crying these tears
But no more, no more

All the many nights I wanted
You to be with me
Now all I remember
Is that you said you'd never leave

I've opened my eyes I'm ready to see
Everything that's ahead of me
You know I'm staying away
From this feeling you call love

I'm confused I don't know
Where can I turn or where can I go
You know I'm trying to keep myself
From losing you

All the many nights I wanted
You to be with me
Now all I remember
Is that you said you'd never leave

I've opened my eyes I'm ready to see
Everything that's ahead of me
You know I'm staying away
From this feeling you call love

All the many nights I wanted
You to be with me
Now all I remember
Is that you said you'd never leave

I've opened my eyes I'm ready to see
Everything that's ahead of me
You know I'm staying away
From this feeling you call love

I've opened my eyes I'm ready to see
Everything that's ahead of me
You know I'm staying away
From this feeling you call love
Oh, oh

Staying away from this feeling you call love
Feeling you call love
Staying away from this feeling you call love
