The Death of Me

Harem Scarem

As I walk to the gallows
I'm feeling no reprieve
I'm left with the comfort
That my spirit's been redeemed

High cross in the valley
Still hanging on the edge
In flight return to sender
Black hole up ahead

As sure as the sun will rise
And darkness sleeps
You won't be the death of me

No not this time
I've been pushed to the limit
Of broken and barely alive
Under your pushing
I've been pushed to the limit
But I know I'm gonna survive
Now I know you won't be
The death of me

You're lightning, all glow and no strikes
You're thunder that rolls then dies
Crushing the souls that let you
Hit the panic override

As sure as the sun will rise
And darkness sleeps

You won't be the death of me

No not this time
I've been pushed to the limit
Of broken and barely alive
Under your pushing
I've been pushed to the limit
But I know I'm gonna survive
Now I know you won't be
I know you won't be
The death of me

As sure as the sun will rise
And darkness sleeps
You won't be the death of me

No not this time
I've been pushed to the limit
Of broken and barely alive
Under your pushing
I've been pushed to the limit
But I know I'm gonna survive
Now I know you won't be
I know you won't be
The death of me

I know you won't be
The death of me
Now I know you won't be
The death of me

The death of me
