

Watch Your Back

Harem Scarem

This is the world you've created
One of fear and denial
Look over your shoulder praying
As you wait for the knife

Getting burned by the fire you feed
(Watching your back)
Every wound every lie
Will bleed

Watch your back
Remembering that what you give
Is what you get
The karma bank
Is empty but you're gonna pay
So watch your back for me
Oh, for me

There's a war that you're waging
And it comes from inside
And you search for tomorrow
In the moment you hide

Getting burned by the fire you feed
(Watching your back)
Every wound every lie
Will bleed

Watch your back
Remembering that what you give
Is what you get
The karma bank
Is empty but you're gonna pay
So watch your back for me
Oh, for me

Watch your back
Remembering that what you give
Is what you get
The karma bank
Is empty but you're gonna pay
So watch your back for me

Watch your back
Remembering that what you give
Is what you get
The karma bank
Is empty but you're gonna pay
Oh, for me
