

Without You

Harem Scarem

Climbed these walls
For hours that feel like days
From highs I fall
To watching the pain drying

The walls that I walked through
And the truth bent
To get to you
'Cause I need you

Where do I belong
Won't get through all my bleak moods
Without you
My resolve

Is a tower that fails to break
Life's a bomb
That can blow you eight ways from Sunday
Blue surrounds me

Blue all around me
Only you can change the tides
Hoping you can decide our fate
