

Appetite

Harley Poe

Libido, it misbehaves
Sugar, you're all it craves
Funny and intelligent
And talented, and down you went
Your beauty makes it want you more
It follows you onto the floor

It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite

And flower, it wants to eat
Devour, until you're completely
Overwhelmed in ecstasy
Grotesque as it must look to be
It only seeks to gobble you
It laps you up like human stew

It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite

Face down on your knees
Only you appease
Quickly shave your hair
In cute underwear
It wants what's under there

It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite

Funny and intelligent
And talented, and down you went
Your beauty makes it want you more
It follows you onto the floor

Overwhelmed in ecstasy
Grotesque as it must look to be
It only seeks to gobble you
It laps you up like human stew

It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
It's got an appetite
