Burden

Harley Poe

I care for no one
No one cares for me
If I don't need you, you're a burden

So be on your way
I care for me
And I work for no man
No man worries for me
I'm drilling in the message I want you to believe
I work for me
Falling down
Dissolving ground
Slowly softly underground

I believe in nothing because nothing is what I will be
If my soul carries on only time will tell
I believe in me
Falling down
Dissolving ground
Slowly softly underground
I wish my heart heart was tender
I wish my motives true
But its black and old and to cold to hold
Or I'd give my heart to you
I'd give my heart you
Or I'd give my heart to-
