

So Small

Harley Poe

My jealousy has led to sin
You think you're strong but you've always been
But you always need somebody else
And you can't get there by yourself

You just do it without thinking
When you want it, you take it, there's no seeking
But if I don't deserve to be let back in
It was just the way to start again
But I should probably lose you after all
Cause I made you feel
So small

I've no excuse for where I've been
I wish we could just start over again
But my love for you was never fake
Have you ever made a mistake?
But you're moving on to a better place
Leave the memories that time will help erase
Well I guess I wasn't that great anyways
Cause the good times couldn't keep you from running away
We disconnected from each other after all
And that I made you feel
So small

So small

(Ah, ah, ah, ah)

You don't miss me, you don't love me anymore
And your vows don't mean to you what they did b4
But your secret affair will be better over on Cause you ain't gonna let him make you feel so small
Misery loves company
I was lost but now I think I see
Do friends tell you what you wanna hear?
The kids will be fine, the past is nowhere
At least you'll have some confidence over on Cause I won't make you feel
So small
So small
So small (Ooo, ooo, ooo)

Cause I'm so small
I'm so small
I'm so small
I'm so small
Cause I'm so (small)
(Cause I'm so small) Cause I'm so small
(Cause I'm so small) Cause I'm so small
