

Teeth Down There

Harley Poe

Looking like a loser like I know that I am
Think everybody's wantin' to fight
Surrounded by the wolves you're a sad little lamb
And why am I so angry tonight

And baby, you've got teeth down there
I can't help but stare
You're such a little brat
Why did I say that
Now, you're getting angry
You're blaming this on me
But you've got teeth down there
Isn't that funny

Watching in horror, I'm feeling dizzy
There's blood on the floor, but we're just too busy
Laughing at the incident
Of faking it
You never meant to love me too
(Ugh)

Now baby, you've got teeth down there
I can't help but stare
You're such a little brat
Why did I say that
Now, you're getting angry
You're blaming this on me
But you've got teeth down there
Isn't that funny

I can't ignore, you make me crazy
I shoulda shown you the door
But you mesmerize me

I'll bleed for you
Cause I'm a fool
I'm just another obstacle
I fell in lust
You played your game
I'd rather die
Than bare the shame
Of knowing that I'll never please
Your demons
I am on my knees
Laughing with you
