Single

Harmonize

This one goes to all single ladies and gentlemen out there

As am young and am rich and handsome
So many bitches on my Instagram
Everybody wanna fuck with me
I don't know who is real to me

I used to play them as bubblegum
Having two girls at the same time
Threesome it's awesome
Now I can't do that anymore

That's why me I take my time
I don't wanna waste somebody's time
Just wanna get to know you better
If you love me or you love my paper

I need a girl to be my wife
Spending together the whole life
When I fucked up, she dey come up
One time give me satisfaction

You must be a forgiver
Coz I'm a believer
And love me where you never loved before
I'll give all my love
For my heart my soul

Single and am ready to mingle
Am waiting for someone to take my love
Love me, love me

Oh yes am single and am ready to mingle
Am waiting for someone to take my love
And love me, love me

Oh oh, ooh ooh
Oh oh, ooh ooh

This life, this life
How can I know if you are the one for me
What if you lie, you lie
Money on your mind that's all you wanna see

I know so many girls who can move their waist
But I need you to give me your love and rest
I just wish I can find one who passed the test
See my age is growing na mi ni stress

For too long I be free
Now am ready to share my key
We live by the sea
And am longing to show you to my mummy

You must be a forgiver
Coz I'm a believer
And love me where you never loved before

I'll give all my love
For my heart my soul

Single and am ready to mingle
Am waiting for someone to take my love
Love me, love me

Oh yes am single and am ready to mingle
Am waiting for someone to take my love
And love me, love me

Oh oh, ooh ooh
Oh oh, ooh ooh
