

Devour

Harm's Way

My life, manipulate
Contorted things I never knew
Devour me
Deceive, I cannot see reality

The deceptive plague
Alive
Of empty flesh
A selfish force
So cruel
A destructive scheme

You take my soul from me and I feel betrayed
You take my soul from me and I am enslaved

Cornered alone
Wounded and vulnerable
Stealing the truth
Robbed of humility

You take my soul from me and I feel betrayed
You take my soul from me and I am enslaved
Enslaved

A false love I forgot to see
Been driven to my own insanity
Devour, devour me
A settled nerve, a silent cage
A puppet string that you orchestrate

Give, give

Give yourself, lose, lose yourself
Devour me, devour me

Give yourself, lose, lose yourself
Devour me, devour me
