

Puppet

Harm's Way

Religion: the downfall of man
Do as they do, do as they say
Reciting a book of lies
Mold them to fit your life

Living slave, masters reign
Living not to die in vain
Deny truth and you don't know why
Heaven and hell is what you live for

To pray and save, we all die anyway
False god, you're just a puppet to faith

Born to die for him
You were told to worship so you would be free from sin
Never question
You chose your path rotting your mind
It's too late to turn back
