

Somewhere Down the Line

Harold Melvin & The Blue Notes

Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
Maybe then we can make it, baby

I don't blame you
And I hope you don't blame me
Can't you see we're just victims of circumstance
Oh, we had to come to the realization
That we just can't make it, baby
No matter how hard we try

You've got your thing to do
And so do I
So for now I think it's better
For you and I to say goodbye
Cause

Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
Somewhere, somewhere
Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
Maybe then, maybe then we can make it, baby

It's not your fault
And believe me it's not mine
We just got caught up
Got caught up in the change of time
And there ain't no reason to go on living like we do
Everyday there's a problem
And all the changes that we're going through

We need to leave each other
For a little while
So we can find out what went wrong
Find out if our love is strong
All we need is just a little more time
Cause

Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
Surely, surely, baby
Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
Maybe then we can make it, baby

It's not that I don't love you
It's not that I don't care
But I gotta go somewhere

Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
Maybe someday, yeah
Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
And maybe we can make it, baby

The problem might be you
Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
And then again the problem might be me
Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
But I love you, don't you see?
Somewhere down the line we'll be together again

But neither one of us knows what's going wrong
Somewhere down the line we'll be together again
But my love, my love is so strong
