

Moon and Back

Harrison Storm

Your necklace
Your white dress
Still hanging in my bedroom closet
They haunt me
Our memories
Still living in the house we lived in Oooh, I'm still waiting
Wasting away

Did you forget
That we promised til' the end of time?
Never be alone again
We were walking under stars aligned
Forever with you was the plan

But somewhere along the way to the moon and back
I lost you
Somewhere along the way to the moon and back
I lost you

My best days
Are darker
Without you standing in my corner
My body
Craves us
My bedroom isn't used to strangers
Oooh, I'm still waiting
Wasting away

Did you forget
That we promised til the end of time?
Never be alone again
We were walking under stars aligned
Forever with you was the plan

But somewhere along the way to the moon and back
I lost you
Somewhere along the way to the moon and back
I lost you
