

Someone Else

Harrison Storm

Lately you've just seemed quiet
Maybe work's got you tired
Why can't your eyes meet mine?
Why don't your words sit right?
Said you were out with friends
Found you next to him

Never thought I'd lose ya, now you belong to someone else
Thought it was the two of us, now you belong to someone else
Someone else
Someone else
Never thought I'd lose ya, now you belong to someone else

Lately I've been yelling out to no one
Thinking someone would save me but they don't come
I can't hold all this rage
You broke me in the worst way
Said you were out with friends
And you'd love me til' the end

Never thought I'd lose ya, now you belong to someone else
Thought it was the two of us, now you belong to someone else
Someone else
Someone else
Never thought I'd lose ya, now you belong to someone else

Never thought I'd lose ya, now you belong to someone else
Thought it was the two of us, now you belong to someone else
Someone else
Someone else
Never thought I'd lose ya, now you belong to someone else
