

My Lord, What a Mornin'

Harry Belafonte

My Lord, what a mornin'
My Lord, what a mornin'
My Lord, what a mornin'
When the stars begin to fall
When the stars begin to fall

My Lord, what a mornin'
My Lord, what a mornin'
My Lord, what a mornin'
When the stars begin to fall
When the stars begin to fall

No more grief and pain for me
I heard from Heaven today
Yes, my Lord's gonna set me free
I heard from Him today

My Lord, what a mornin'
My Lord, what a mornin'
Oh, my Lord, what a mornin'
When the stars begin to fall
When the stars begin to fall

On my way to the promised land
I heard from Him today
God's gonna give me His right hand
I heard from Heaven today

My Lord, what a mornin'
My Lord, what a mornin'
Oh, my Lord, what a mornin'
When the stars begin to fall
When the stars begin to fall
