

Jill

Harry Connick, Jr.

I know a girl
Who says she loves me
She says she needs me
And I have reason to believe her
Good reason

Like when we kiss
My eyes won't open
My heart won't listen
And I don't have a word to say
No, not a word

Look, my darling
And you'll hear me sing "I love you"
With my eyes
Let me hold you
Really hold you
Then you'll know my heart

Just can't tell lies
It knows a true love
It knows it's you, love
And it knows that you say
You love me
And I say I love you, too
