

Addiction

Harry Hudson

If only I could be your addiction
Then I would give every part of me without condition
I'll take your scars
Your sins and your heart
And all of your best mistakes
If only I could be your addiction

There's a time
There's a place
Where everyone feels broken
But you smile in a way that says things you've never spoken
And I know what you do
When you think no one is watching
And I know what you use
And I know that isn't working

If only I could be your addiction
Then I would give every part of me without condition
I'll take your scars
Your sins and your heart
And all of your best mistakes
If only I could be your addiction

I fan the flames to the fire
That you set to burn your pictures
And I stand by your side
As your past turns into cinders
And I watch as you rise
From the ashes of forgiveness
Then you'll know how to love
And to be loved

If only I could be your addiction
Then I would give every part of me without condition
I'll take your scars
Your sins and your heart
And all of your best mistakes
If only I could be your addiction
