

Cry For Love

Harry Hudson

Lonely days in Californ-i-a
Where everyday is one big masquerade
In the hills I found a sign that spells your name
All these X and O's can't take away the pain

So go light that cigarette
I hope your lungs can take the heartache
Our feet in wet cement
Can we finish what's been started?

You only call me when the sun sets
I only touch you when the tide's high
No talking when we undress
But your body got my eyes wide
Bump heads while the bed's bumpin'
Left hand grips your right thigh
No love, we just love sex
But we hate it when the night dies

We don't cry for love
'Cause that's dangerous
We don't cry for love
'Cause that's dangerous
We don't cry for love
'Cause that's dangerous
We don't cry for love
'Cause that's dangerous

Safe to say I'm surfing through your brain, in Hanalei
Making waves on a wave
Face to face, working through the pain
We never change, but I love watching you change
I came back to get closer
Lost you when you lost sober
Ruby rings and mimosas
I'm heartless in Hermossa
Sorry that I've been colder, but...

You only call me when the sun sets
I only touch you when the tide's high
No talking when we undress
But your body got my eyes wide
Bump heads while the bed's bumpin'
No love, we just love sex
But we hate it when the night dies

We don't cry for love
'Cause that's dangerous
We don't cry for love
'Cause that's dangerous
We don't cry for love
'Cause that's dangerous
We don't cry for love
'Cause that's dangerous

So go light that cigarette

I hope your lungs can take the heartache
Can we finish what's been started?

You only call me when the sun sets

We don't cry for love
We don't cry for love
We don't cry for love
We don't cry for love
'Cause that's dangerous
