

Echoes

Harry Hudson

I can hear
Hear you calling for me
Hide your fear
The fear of falling for me

No, I don't know what you've been running from
Or where you are
Or if the ocean carried you too far
They say the sound of heaven only plays
When you're with God
But I hear angels every time you call

When your whisper echoes
Inside my head
There's a golden halo
Around my bed
When your whisper echoes
Inside my head

Woo-oo-oo-oo-oo

I can hear
Hear you screaming for me
If you're lost
And you got nowhere to go
Hurry back to me

No, I don't know what you've been running from
Or where you are
Or if the ocean carried you too far
They say the sound of heaven only plays
When you're with God
But I hear angels every time you call

When your whisper echoes
Inside my head
There's a golden halo
Around my bed
When your whisper echoes
Inside my head

Woo-oo-oo-oo-oo
Woo-oo-oo-oo-oo

Voices in my head, voices in my head
Nothing, I don't mind, I just let 'em in
Voices in my head, voices in my head

Eyes wide shut, [?]
I never let you go

When your whisper echoes inside my head
There's a golden halo around my bed
When your whisper echoes inside my head

Voices in my head, voices in my head
Nothing, I don't mind, I just let 'em in, I just let 'em in

Voices in my head, voices in my head
Nothing, I don't mind, I just let 'em in, I just let 'em in
I just let 'em in
