

Your pink hair stains my t-shirt
Lips so sweet make my teeth hurt
Don't talk much, that's the way you work
Don't talk much, that's the way it works

Paint chipped nails with big dog eyes
Flipping me the bird when I say goodnight
Steal my coat when its cold outside
Lukewarm love by the fireside

So will you stay so I can hold you close?
We learn the hard way 'cause I'm a rolling stone

So Kelsey, I never meant to break your heart
My sweet lady, know I loved you from the start
And if we just breathe we can move the stars tonight
That's why I can't get you out of my mind

Much too real to ever numb the pain
Never too late to turn the page
Now you turn up late with mdma
Pom-pom hair, stuck in the clouds
Smile like lightning striking the ground
Sunflowers outside of your house
Your mans my sun wait 'till he burns out

So will you stay so I can hold you close?
We learn the hard way 'cause I'm a rolling stone

So Kelsey, I never meant to break your heart
My sweet lady, know I loved you from the start
And if we just breathe we can move the stars tonight
That's why I can't get you out of my mind

Sweet cinnamon chocolate lips
Bite my neck, sugarcoat my skin
Sweet cinnamon chocolate lips
Never knew love could taste like this
Sweet cinnamon chocolate lips
Bite my neck, sugarcoat my skin
Sweet cinnamon chocolate lips
Never knew love could taste like this

So Kelsey, I never meant to hurt your heart
My sweet lady, just know I loved you from the start
But if we just breathe we can move the stars tonight
That's why I can't get you out of my mind

Kelsey, I never meant to break your heart
My sweet lady, know I loved you from the start
And if we just breathe we can move the stars tonight
That's why I can't get you out of my mind
