

Pendulum

Harry Hudson

Like raindrops when the sun shines
Like a low life with a good high
When the fireplace don't work right
We lost our spark on a cold night, yeah

Fell in love at my own expense
You say my love can't pay your rent
I was belly broke now I'm hungry rich
Can't be lovers if we can't be friends

Used to want your love, now you make me sick
In the sky
Where I put you then 'til you crash-landed
By my side
Showed me your true side, time to call it quits
Guess it's done
No more back and forth like a pendulum
Let it swing, yeah, yeah, yeah
Let it swing, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

You hear me but don't listen
A lips touch ain't kissing
That's why I've been distant
I asked for paper-thin wishes
You tore them up that instant
That's where this story ended

Fell in love at my own expense
You say my love can't pay your rent
I was belly broke now I'm hungry rich
Can't be lovers, can't be friends

Used to want your love, now you make me sick
In the sky
Where I put you then 'til you crash-landed
By my side
Show me your true side, time to call it quits
Guess it's done
No more back and forth like a pendulum
Let it swing, yeah, yeah, yeah
Let it swing, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
