

Life Line

Harry Nilsson

Down to the bottom
Hello, is there anybody else here?
It's cold and I'm so lonely
Hello, is there anybody else here?

Hello, won't you throw me down a Life Line?
I'm so afraid of darkness
And down here, it's just like night time

Oohs, are all around me
Hello, will you please send down a Life Line?

Down and there isn't any hope for me
Unless this dream which seems so real
Is just a fantasy
