

Too Much Sauce

Harry Styles

(Dirty little monster)

You're a dirty little monster
A coked up little Pop-Tart
Can't keep your head out your dreams
So you're lacking education
Keep a charming conversation
Can't keep your tongue in your teeth

I'm a good time, make you feel alright
I keep you up all night, you'll never want it back
I'm a good time, we can fly some place
We can drink all day, we won't be coming back
Having too much this, not enough that
I'm a simple boy, but I'm a good time sally
Have a good time, make you feel alright
Keep you up all night, you'll never want it back
(Yeah, that was fire!)

You can choke her if she's asking
Get permission on a napkin
Be what they want you to be
You chewed it up, spat it out
Who still sends dick pictures out?
Now there's too much sauce
Gotta keep my fingers clean

'Cause I'm a good time, make you feel alright
I keep you up all night, you'll never want it back
I'm a good time, we can fly some place
We can drink all day, we won't be coming back
Having too much this, not enough that
I'm a simple boy, but I'm a good time sally
Have a good time, make you feel alright
I keep you up all night, you won't be coming back

'Cause I'm a good time, make you feel alright
I keep you up all night, you'll never want it back
I'm a good time, we can fly some place
We can drink all day, we won't be coming back
Having too much this, not enough that
I'm a simple boy, but I'm a good time sally
Have a good time, make you feel alright
I keep you up all night, you won't be coming back

(I'm a good time)

(I'm a good time)

(Good time, make you feel alright, keep you up all night, you'll never want it back)
