

Speechless

Harvest

Alright
One, two, three

A million songs that I could sing
Can never scratch the surface
In all of heaven's melody
Can never match Your wonder
Cathedrals made of flesh and bone
Beyond what I can fathom
Treasure deep in every stone
Oh, this is our communion

Speechless
When I'm in Your presence
You leave me speechless
I'm in awe of You

What sacrifice do You desire?
What could I give to show my love?
Is praise I give to You required?
Oh, is being here with You enough?

Speechless
When I'm in Your presence
You leave me speechless
I'm in awe of You

Speechless
When I'm in Your presence
You leave me speechless
I'm in awe of You

In awe of You
I am in awe of You
From begging to the end
Every breath and all I am
I am in awe of You
I am in awe of You
From beginning to the end
Every breath and all that I am
I am in awe of You
I am in awe of You
From beginning to the end
Every breath and all that I am
From beginning to the end
Every breath and all that I am

Speechless
When I'm in Your presence
You leave me speechless
I'm in awe of You
