

Violently

Harvest

The cross that tore your skin
Its love that draws me in
The blood you shed for me
Pierced to bring me peace
Pierced to bring me peace

Cursed in agony
Yet all your thoughts towards me
Murdered like a thief
For all iniquity

You love me
Love me violently
You love me
Love me violently
You love me violently

There's no darkness that you haven't been in
Man of sorrows acquainted with suffering
There's no hell there's no prison of torment
Here your love breaks in
Your love breaks in
Your love breaks in
Your love breaks in

You love me
Love me violently
You love me
Love me violently
You love me violently
