

Not That Kind

Hatchie

Give me one good reason
I should let you out of my sight
When what you're running from is waiting for you
Over on the other side
You try to take it in your stride
But I know it doesn't feel right
Well we can make it, we can break it
If you just give me a little time

I gave you what you wanted
And you threw it away, you threw it away
Thought we could make it by the morning
But you were gone without trace, gone without trace

Fate keeps trying to find me
But I'm not the kind of
Girl to let it define me
I'm not the kind
And they keep trying to tell me
That I'm out of time
But all I've ever wanted
All I've ever needed is you

If I had a rose
For every sorry that was overdue
I'd have a garden full of flowers
Not this never ending empty view
And you can call it an obsession
Call it anything you want to
Just don't say you didn't see it coming
Running after us in rear view

Fate keeps trying to find me
But I'm not the kind of
Girl to let it define me
I'm not the kind
And they keep trying to tell me
That I'm out of time
But all I've ever wanted
All I've ever needed is you

So tell me what you got
Is it everything you hoped?
I guess we've given up a lot but
Is it enough to mend what's broken?

Fate keeps trying to find me
But I'm not the kind of
Girl to let it define me
I'm not the kind
And they keep trying to tell me
That I'm out of time
But all I've ever wanted
All I've ever needed is you

Fate keeps trying to find me
But I'm not the kind of

Girl to let it define me
I'm not the kind
And they keep trying to tell me
That I'm out of time
But all I've ever wanted
All I've ever needed is you

But all I've ever wanted
All I've ever needed is you
