

Stay With Me

Hatchie

It's no better now you're gone
It's no better on my own
Even when you're gone
I feel like you're the one who's won
Even when I'm wrong
You act like I'm the only one

Stay with me
Why don't you stay with me
'Cause I'm not done
I've come undone
Stay with me
Why won't you stay with me
Though it feels wrong
You're still the one

It's no better now you're gone
I feel nothing and I feel numb
Even when you're wrong
I feel like you're the one who's won
Even when I'm wrong
You act like I'm the only one

Stay with me
Why don't you stay with me
'Cause I'm not done
I've come undone
Oh, stay with me
Why won't you stay with me
Though it feels wrong
You're still the one

If I met you in a different moment
If I met you, would I be this broken?
If I met you, would it all still be so hard?
Oh, if I met you in a different moment
If I met you, would I be this broken?
If I met you, would it all still fall apart?

Why won't you stay with me
Why don't you stay with me
'Cause I'm not done
I've come undone
Oh, stay with me
Why won't you stay with me
Though it feels wrong
You're still the one
