This Enchanted

Hatchie

Sometimes I'm too close to just let go
When others leave it all behind
Next time, I should learn to just let go
But then you take some more and lie

It shouldn't have to be so hard
I shouldn't have to hold your hand
You shouldn't have to break my heart
You shouldn't have to, ah-ah-ah-ah-ah

It's washing over me
This enchanted, this enchanted
Your image is all I see
This enchanted, this enchanted
(Ah-ah-ah-ah) This enchanted

My eyes were closed from the get-go
It seemed too high to climb
I try to run away from the echoes
But they hit harder every time

It shouldn't have to be so hard
I shouldn't have to hold your hand
You shouldn't have to break my heart
You shouldn't have to, ah-ah-ah-ah-ah

I never believed something could feel so right
(Never felt so right)
You wanna be free, I'd rather stay inside of this enchanted
This enchanted, this enchanted

It's washing over me
This enchanted, this enchanted
Your image is all I see
This enchanted, this enchanted
It's washing over me
This enchanted, this enchanted
Your image is all I see
This enchanted, this enchanted
This enchanted
