

All Hope Destroyed

Hate Eternal

I see the everlasting face of death and our demise
Shadows of the promised land, spare us our own reprise

The scorched they prevail
Haunted evil
The tortured prevail
Wicked evil

I see your embers fall as you hide in pure disgrace
I watch your spirit fall as you fade into oblivion

O' woeful angst of pure despair
May war and destruction prevail

I hear your endless cries as you
Writhe in sheer distress
I feel your soul now slip away into the endless dark
I sense the numbing void as it
Permeates the land
Now through me I am the vessel of the overcome I stand

The scorched they prevail
Haunted evil
The tortured prevail
Wicked evil

I see your embers fall as you hide in pure disgrace
I watch your spirit fall as you fade into oblivion

Cower no longer for your time has come
For the mantra of lies are now upon us

O' woeful angst of pure despair
May war and destruction prevail

We have all demolished our idols
All of humanity fails
All has fallen of what we cherish
Obliterated by catastrophic epic proportions
All of what we have known now destroyed

Hopelessness has now set in
As the actualization of our fate arrives
May we find the tranquil end
From this endless scourge
