

Choose or Be Chosen

Hatebreed

The time has come to deny your ways
To rid ourselves of the parasites
Shedding dead weight, reclaiming what's ours
Taking each moment with force again

No crosses to bear, no time to be wasted
A fearless approach to oppression
A constant attack to never retreat from
With no other choice but resistance

What will it take, what will it take, what will it take?
You must choose or be chosen for
What will it take, what will it take, what will it take?
Choose or be chosen

It's all that we ask, before what we demand
The decisions we make we will live by
Proving your weakness, denouncing your claims
Your feeble attempts to demean us

What more can you do? You're against the wall
Your lies will be heard for the last time
Say what you will, it's only in vain
This is the justice I fought to attain

What will it take, what will it take, what will it take?
You must choose or be chosen for
What will it take, what will it take, what will it take?
Choose or be chosen

What will it take, what will it take, what will it take?
You must choose or be chosen for
What will it take, what will it take, what will it take?
Choose or be chosen

What will it take?
Choose, choose
What will it take?
Choose, choose
Choose or be chosen
