

Invoking Dominance

Hatebreed

Enough chances have drifted by
I must reclaim what's mine
Reclaim what's mine
Invoking dominance inside
If it means I put my life on the line
This choice cannot be denied
Now I reclaim what's mine

Test the waters, think you know pain
Enter unforgiving domain
Thought this was over
Challenge my will, I'm going for the kill
Thought you could poke the scorpion's nest
Feel the venom in your heart as it seizes in your chest
You thought this was over
It's not over till you take your final breath

As you gasp, I'll be taking back
Taking back what's mine
I'll put everything on the line
When my fists are pouring blood
I'll know I did everything I could
Putting it on the fucking line
Now I reclaim what's mine

You knew how this would end
Still you chose to step into the lion's den
Now it's never over
Thought I'd be your prey
Tried to take my dignity
Nothing left to lose, can't live on my knees
You'll be snared in the jaws of defeat
Fools die in horror, not knowing why, never how

Reclamation
Through the nothingness, I climb
Reclamation
Hostilities come alive
Reclamation
With powers outside my own
Reclamation
Engraved in Stone

Enough chances have drifted by
I must reclaim what's mine
Reclaim what's mine
Invoking dominance inside
Reclamation
Reclamation
Living fire galvanized
Reclamation
Reclamation
Dominance inside
