Kill An Addict

Hatebreed

You've made excuses for the fucked up things You've done but everyone's heard them before Your lying and stealing to feed your addictions Won't be tolerated anymore

I tried to help you but you spit in my face So now you're on your own I see your life slipping away You brought it on yourself, go

Those I've hated, are the ones I've held so close
And those who use betrayal
Will be the ones to suffer
The ones to suffer the most
