

Gravedigger

Hatesphere

It's all the same
False idols only bearing different names
Prophets of all that's hollow
Consume
The hivemind's ready to feed
Your eyes were never meant to see
The truth that lies beneath

Gravedigger
The soil can't hide away
Shallow caskets of human disease
Gravedigger
No heroes under your feet
So Dig your shovel deep
Dig your shovel deep
And sharpen your teeth
When eyes refuse to see
Then you'll make them bleed

It's all a lie
Tongues spitting empty worthless phrases
If there is truth
there is no trace of it
Bury the flesh and bones
When it gets too close
Now drowning what will never show

Gravedigger
The soil can't hide away
Shallow caskets of human disease
Gravedigger
No heroes under your feet
So Dig your shovel deep
Dig your shovel deep
And sharpen your teeth
When eyes refuse to see
Then you'll make them bleed

Gravedigger
The soil can't hide away
Shallow caskets of human disease
Gravedigger
No heroes under your feet
So Dig your shovel deep
Dig your shovel deep

With nothing to gain
You bury your shame
Nothing left of yourself
But a husk playing masquerade

It never ends
A cold cage holding the black heart of dreams
Once had in a life so free
But you will know - yes you will know
The demons haunting you endlessly
Screaming in pain, screaming your name
